FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NW3C Hosts Intellectual Property Crime Training Seminar

WHEELING, WV, June 4, 2012. The National White Collar Crime Center (NW3C) will host an Intellectual Property Crime Training Seminar in Wheeling, WV, on Wednesday, June 6, 2012, to help state and local law enforcement better understand the serious effects of this crime problem. Experienced law enforcement and industry investigators will discuss “why these crimes matter.” The conference will focus on the health and safety issues, the economic impact, and the connection to organized criminal activity associated with the sale of counterfeit products. Representatives of the National Crime Prevention Council, the National IPR Coordination Center, as well as state and local officers who have successfully worked IP crime cases will be there to share their knowledge and ideas. The training seminar will be held at Wheeling Park High School from 7:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
