WHAT: St. Michael Parish Angelus Center Dedication Ceremony

WHEN: Sunday, November 1, 2009
Immediately following 12:30 pm Mass

WHERE: Angelus Center, 1201 National Road, Wheeling

WHY: After more than 10 years of planning and execution, the $4 million building project of the new St. Michael Parish Angelus Center is complete and will be officially dedicated at a ceremony led by the Most Reverend Michael J. Bransfield, Bishop of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston.

Prior to the ceremony, Bishop Bransfield will celebrate 12:30 Mass at St. Michael Parish and then lead a procession to the Angelus Center, along with St. Michael Pastor Rev. Jeremiah McSweeney and Parochial Vicar Rev. J. Daniel Pisano. A light reception will follow for all guests.

The 16,000 sq. foot Angelus Center facility, which houses a full-size gymnasium, 16 ft. projection screen with state-of-the-art audio-visual technology, boys' and girls' locker rooms, restrooms, three meeting rooms, and a commercial kitchen, is a multi-purpose building which will be used primarily for St. Michael parish and school events, activities, meetings, physical education classes, as well as for youth gatherings.
