Five Arrested in Wheeling Island Burglary

Around 6:40 p.m., Saturday, January 12, Wheeling Police officers were dispatched to a North Penn Street address on Wheeling Island for a report of a burglary in progress and a fight between the intruders and occupants.

When officers arrived, five people were quickly detained outside the house. The victim told police they were met by a group of people who made forced entry and started to fight. It appears the victim and those arrested know each other.

Arrested and facing one count of burglary are:
William James Carr, 40 of Wheeling
Renaee Kelli Carr, 41 of Bridgeport, Ohio
Arieane Rochelle Miles, 37 of Bellaire, Ohio
Rebeka Kai Foston-Miles 27 of Wheeling
Jacinda Elaine Underhill, 20 of Martins Ferry, Ohio

They were arrested and taken to the Northern Regional Jail. An Ohio County magistrate set bond at $5,000 each.
