Charges Filed in Center Wheeling Breaking and Entering

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 9, 2019

Criminal charges have been filed on a Wheeling man who broke into a Center Wheeling business Wednesday evening on 22nd Street.

Around 6:45 a.m., today, employees found a garage door broken and called police. When officers arrived, it was discovered a van was stolen with thousands of dollars of equipment inside.

Within hours, Pennsylvania State Police were able to locate the stolen van in Waynesburg. The suspect, Shawn Ryan Harden, 35 of Wheeling was taken into police custody. Harden is being held in Pennsylvania on unrelated charged from Washington County, Pa.

Harden is being charged by the Wheeling Police Department with breaking and entering and grand larceny.
